

Your Other Self

the prudent, provident, far-seeing man within you asks:

Have you ever thought what will become of you when your earning capacity is gone?

Is there anything more pathetic than a man bowed down with years, who is compelled to rend body and soul to eke out a livelihood?

Why not regulate your present outgo with reference to your future diminishing capacity for earning income.

Save and bank enough now to make up the difference later on.

Money securely banked with us is energy stored against the struggle for existence.

Provide a growing account to insure your future ease.
